New York, Jan. 28.

A special to the Post says: Postmaster-General Blair made a speech at Annapolis, Friday evening, in advocacy of the President's Emancipation and Amnesty Proclamations. The speech gives much satisfaction.

Congressional.

reduced the Commutation clause of the refused to exempt Quakers and Clergymen.

ported from the Postoffice Committee making the Department responsible for nearly a unanimous vote, to the re-tion of the reciprocity treaty [with Canada we presume.]

HOCES—The Committee on Elections have reported against the claims of Field, of Louisiana, and Secar, of Virginia, as Representatives from those States.

ry Committee to report a bill increasing the pay of soldiers, was referred to a Select Committee of three.

The Military Committee reported the Senate's amendatory enrollment bill, and amendments. The consideration of the bill is postponed until Wednesday.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 26th.

terday, R. L. Perkins was confirmed as Postmaster of San Francisco, vice Parker, removed.

loans of three millions; decrease of specie, eight hundred thousand; decrease of deposits, one hundred and seventy-five thousand.

The Commercial says: Private advice from well informed quarters state positively that the Schleswig Holstein position is about to settle peacefully by an agreement between the Great Powers in which Denmark has already promised to acquiesce in and which will be imposed by Austria and Prussia upon the less fortunate

States by force, if necessary.

A Fort Worth letter, of Dec. 15th, reports both the Alabama and Texas barracks at St. Catharines, on Nov. 20th.

They were refused supplies and ordered off at the request of the American Consul. As regards the Alabama the losses must be mistaken.

From Canada.

Johnson Island, left here today for Halifax.

From Arkansas.

Little Rock, Arkansas, Jan. 25th.

state that the Convention which assembled on the 15th, has almost completed its labors. The greater portion of the State was represented. An article forever prohibiting slavery was adopted; only one dissenting vote.

A Constitution is to be submitted to the people on the second Monday in March, at which time State officers and members of the Legislature are to be elected. The action of the Convention was universally satisfactory to loyal men.

The qualification of voters is that proscribed by the President's proclamation. Loyal citizens say they will be able to poll twenty thousand votes for the Constitution.

Exploit of Col. Palmer.

Cincinnati, Jan. 25th.

A Nashville telegram of Saturday, says: A Federal train, with a guard consisting of six companies of the 15th

Pennsylvania, was captured 25 miles east of Knoxville on the 14th. As soon as the news was received, C.

Palmer, at the head of a brigade of Union cavalry, was sent in pursuit. In a few hours he overtook the enemy and recaptured his wagons and killed and wounded a hundred and fifty rebels. So complete was the rout that nothing like a regular pursuit was impossible, as the fugitive rebels fled in all directions, not taking care to save Palmer's attack, the enemies, which they had not been relieved and on their way though, all escaping. It was in this night that the rebel Maj. Gen. Vance was captured.

Important Order.

Louisville, Jan. 25th.

Major-General Foster has issued an order prohibiting the distribution of circulars within the limits of the Department of this.

Vallandigham's Case.

New York, Jan. 25.

Washington specialists say that the case raised by Hugh in Vallandigham's case, in the Supreme Court, is that the military commission has no authority to try a citizen, having no jurisdiction, except over persons of the military and naval service. Holt submitted a written argument in opposition to this view. The court has reserved its decision.

The President's Veto of the Conditions of Arkansas.

Washington, 25.

The President's letter of instructions to Gen. Steele, in regard to an election in Arkansas, says: That it is to be assumed at said election, and therefore, that the constitution and laws of the State as before rebellion are in full force, except that the constitution is so modified as to declare there shall be neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except for punishment of crimes. But the General Assembly may make such provision for the freed people as shall recognize their permanent freedom, and provide for their education and which may not be considered a temporary arrangement with their present condition as a laboring, landless and homeless class.

From Oklahoma.

Oklahoma, Jan. 25th.

The Richmond Examiner of the 11th, advises the public that general orders have been prepared in the Adj. Gen's office, and will be issued in a few days, and that it is a forgery.

days, for the immediate conscription of persons who furnished substitutes.

They will be put in camps of instruction within ten days.

The Savannah Republican of the 13th says: A flutter is created here by this law, the most interesting papers on record, and will cause an extensive stampede to the north and other foreign parts, by gentlemen who have been engaged in trade.

The Richmond correspondent of the Columbia (Ga.) Star has it, from a trustworthy source, that one of the designs in abolishing the exemption by substitutes, was to get rid of certain editors and obnoxious to the armies.

The Examiner of the 13th says:

The Senate, yesterday, passed the bill putting in the army all who have furnished substitutes. This will cut off the entire working force of the Virginia railroads, whose executive officers can now hardly keep them in good running order, by all the means at their command. All the Virginia railroad iron is nearly worn out and so are the men working them.

The Examiner of the 13th, says: The loss of our best raiding territory of West Mississippi has reduced the supply of that article, and the most vigorous measures are needed to keep the troops in meat. Great economy is necessary to save our supply is cut off.

The Standard has a alarming sign of trouble in North Carolina. Speaking of the papers of that State, it says these are at Raleigh, rarely find to publish every glory article and intemperate comment against the Government which appears any where.

Their editorial indicate the same sentiments as their selections. It contains frequent statements against President Lincoln for bringing on the war for cause whatever, and implies in careless recklessness that North Carolina is not fairly treated. Coupled with these they have almost daily editorials over the horrors of war, and the poor promise of our affairs.
